

PALACE OF STATE
16 April 2021

To all whom it may concern,

The Resolution on Florenian Government called for a referendum on the question of its own adoption between 10 and 13 September 2020. As this referendum did not occur between these dates, it will be rescheduled to occur between 17 and 19 of April 2021. All Florenian citizens of or over the age of sixteen years will be eligible to cast a ballot either in favor or against the adoption of the Resolution.

The government has developed a scheme for the implementation of the system of government called for in the Resolution. It has been designated the “Resolution Plan” and will proceed as follows:

THE RESOLUTION PLAN

Referendum phase, 17 – 19 April 2021

The Crown will make provision for a referendum of all willing Florenian citizens on the question of the adoption of the Resolution on Florenian Government between 17 April 2021 and 19 April 2021.

The Crown will make provision for the registration of all willing Florenian citizens for membership in Parliament following its official establishment.

Basis phase, 20 – 22 April 2021
